UCLA: THE NATION'S FINEST ALL-AROUND PROGRAM

Once again in 1980-81, the UCLA athletic program was judged the nation's finest in a survey conducted by the Knoxville Journal. It was UCLA's third championship in the last four years and its fifth in the 11-year history of the award.

No less than seven teams ranked among the nation's top five in their respective sports and the football squad, which finished with an outstanding 9-2 season, was rated No. 2 on both wire service polls midway through the season.

Volleyball led the way, capturing an NCAA title for the eighth time in the 12-year history of the sport. In March, the swim team placed second in the NCAA meet, its highest finish ever, and two months later the tennis team reached the NCAA championship match and finished second nationally.

The Bruin gymnastic squad has become a national power in the past few years. In 1980-81, the gymnasts won the Pacific-10 title and then placed third nationally (behind Nebraska and Oklahoma), the best finish in school history.

UCLA's cross country team won its first-ever Pacific-10 title and then placed fifth at the NCAA championships. In June, the Bruins earned fifth-place finishes in track and crew, the latter in the IRA championships.

With its victory in volleyball, UCLA now owns 39 NCAA team championships, the second highest total in the nation. The Bruins have won 13 of the titles in tennis (five in the last 12 years), the most of any school. UCLA's first NCAA crown was in tennis (1950) and the school has won the title 12 times since that year (1952-53-54-56-60-61-65-70-71-75-76-79).

UCLA owns 10 titles in basketball, all in the last 18 years (1964-65-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-75). That total is twice as many as any other school (Kentucky is second with five). The Bruins have dominated volleyball since its inception as an NCAA sport in 1970, capturing the title eight times (1970-71-72-74-75-76-79-81) and reaching the championship match two other times (1978-80).

Track and field is another sport in which the Bruins excel. They own five NCAA titles (1956-66-71-72-73) and have finished fifth or better in 10 of the last 11 years. UCLA's other three championships have been won by the water polo program (1969-71-72). The poloists have also finished second three other times for six top-two finishes.

The UCLA women also own the nation's finest overall athletic program. The Bruin women won the 1980-81 award, sponsored by the Santa Monica Evening Outlook, by a wide margin and it was their fourth straight title.

THE 1981 BRUINS

RUNNING GAME — Sophomore KEVIN NELSON (5-11, 188) inherits Freeman McNeil's vacated tailback post. He got a head start on McNeil's career record with 481 yards rushing as a freshman, most ever by a Bruin rookie. He dashed for 123 yards against Wisconsin and a UCLA Frosh record 186 at Arizona State. Taking some of the load off Kevin's shoulders while battling for the starting role will be junior TERRY MOREHEAD (6-0, 195). He redshirted last season with personal problems after showing well in the spring of 1980 following his transfer from Santa Rosa Junior College. Another candidate is sophomore CHESTER GOYNES (5-10, 195), who was pressed into service as a fullback last season and carried the ball only seven times. FRANK BRUNO (5-11½, 230) filled the fullback spot solidly as a sophomore, gaining 364 yards when he wasn't blocking for McNeil. Returning after a one-year layoff is junior TOA SAIPALE (6-1½, 227), who gained 279 yards when not running interference for Freeman in 1979. Adding depth is sophomore FRANK CEPHOUS (5-11, 204). He got a taste of collegiate competition with seven carries last term.

OFFENSIVE LINE — "This is the biggest question mark on our offensive football team," says Donahue. "We're in very good shape on the right side of the line, but can the people we have lined up on the left side jell into a good offensive line? I think they can. This is a lot like 1976 when we didn't know quite what to expect because we had a lot of new people after the Rose Bowl year. But those kids jelled really well, too." Right tackle LUIS SHARPE (6-6, 250) is one of the premier linemen in the country, at least if you're talking to pro scouts. He's blessed with 4.97 40-speed and a 35-inch vertical leap. Behind him are fellow senior MIKE MASON (6-6, 257) and junior SCOTT GORDON (6-4½, 243), a junior college transfer last spring. At right guard is junior DAN DUFOUR (6-4½, 278), who alternated with DAVE OTEY at center last season and was moved in the spring. Dufour, like Sharpe, is one of the better athletes on the line and coaches expect an easy transition for him. Junior MIKE JOLLY (6-4, 261) made tremendous advancement in the spring, when Dufour was idled with knee rehabilitation, and should be a factor. Otey (6-2, 269) begins his senior campaign as one of the top centers on the West Coast. He also spent the spring on the sidelines after knee surgery, giving backup sophomores STEVE WILLIAMS (6-3, 231) and MARK MANNON (6-4, 233) needed experience. Junior BLAKE WINGLE moves into the starter's role at left guard with sophomore CHRIS YELICH (6-4, 240) as his backup. Wingle, one of the strongest players on the squad, has never started at this level, having transferred as a sophomore from Ventura College. Yelich saw action as a defensive tackle last season after coming to Westwood as an inside linebacker. If this becomes a serious problem area, starting left tackle DON MAHLSTEDT (6-5, 245) might move over. He backed up at right guard as a sophomore last term. The improved play of junior STEVE GEMZA (6-7, 261) might also ease the burden here. Another contender is sophomore KEVIN CRONIN (6-4, 268).

DEFENSE — Last season's defensive unit was UCLA's stingiest in 11 years and even though the Bruins return every down lineman and the entire secondary — save for Kenny Easley — Donahue remains concerned. "You never have enough unbelievable all-star players," he says, pointing to the linebacker corps which was decimated through graduation. Replacements must come for steady performers like Larry Hall and Scott Stauch on the outside and Arthur Akers and Avon Riley inside. RON BUTLER (6-2½, 232) and BLANCHARD MONTGOMERY (6-3, 229) are a sophomore and a junior, respectively, with a total of one game of starting experience between them. They'll start on the inside with sophs GENE MEWBORN (6-2, 229) and LEE KNOWLES (6-1, 218) pushing Butler and junior REX GRAY (6-3, 200) spelling Montgomery. The outside posts could become just as green. Senior GLENN WINDOM (6-3, 220), was a starter when he injured his knee in 1978. Two operations, much hard work and two years later, he's ticketed to start this fall and Bruin coaches are hopeful that he'll return to his pro potential sophomore form. If he can't make it, the jobs will go to senior IKE GORDON (6-4½, 221), a onetime defensive tackle, and sophomore DOUG WEST (6-3½, 220), a former strong safety. Another candidate is sophomore MIKE MAHAN (6-4, 225), a fall transfer from West L.A. JC. "With Glenn as strong as ever we might be OK," says Donahue. "Otherwise . . ." There are no worries in the defensive line or secondary. Junior IRV EATMAN (6-6, 265) became an all-world candidate in the span of a few hours against Ohio State last season. Only greatness is predicted for his final two seasons as a Bruin. He'll man the right tackle spot again with junior JEFF CHAFFIN (6-3, 238) and sophomore KENNY PAGE (6-3, 232) waiting in the wings. At left tackle are senior JOE GARY (6-4½, 262) and junior MIKE BARBEE (6-3½, 245), a couple of seasoned veterans. Nose guard is even deeper with senior MARTIN MOSS (6-3½, 235) trying to hold off juniors KARL MORGAN (6-1, 247) and MARK FERGUSON (6-2½, 226). UCLA's defensive line was vastly improved a year ago, particularly in the pass rush department, and that made afternoons a lot more pleasant for the secondary. Junior LUPE SANCHEZ (5-10, 186) returns at left cornerback. He's been a starter there since early in his freshman year and might be the best corner on the coast. Backup help will come from sophomore LYNDON CRAWFORD (6-0, 190). Replacing Kenny Easley at free safety will be last year's strong safety, TOM SULLIVAN (5-11, 188), ready to start at his third different position in three years. He played right cornerback as a freshman. Last year's RCB is this year's strong safety, junior JIMMY TURNER (6-0, 188). He led the Bruins in interceptions last season with five, one more than Sullivan, two more than Sanchez and three more than Easley. Sullivan has help from sophomore DON ROGERS (6-1, 207) and junior LARRY THOMAS (5-10, 184) while Turner will be backed up by junior DAN LAUTER (5-10½, 176) and sophomore TERRY MOORE (6-0, 194). All have seen action on special teams. Taking Turner's slot at right corner will be junior MIKE DURDEN (6-1, 188) with assistance from junior WALTER LANG (5-9, 175).

KICKING GAME — Senior NORM JOHNSON (6-2, 193) became famous for his non-returnable kickoffs last season which continually gave the defense ideal field position. He also contributed 62 points on 32 conversion kicks and 10 field goals — his longest measuring 43 yards. Johnson's accuracy should improve this year with a solid season behind him. Sophomore KEN POTTER (6-1, 202) walked onto the campus as a barefooted kicker a year ago and earned a scholarship as Johnson's backup and will eventually inherit Norm's duties. The loss of Matt McFarland cannot be minimized. Asked to handle the punting will be sophomore KEVIN BUENAFE (6-0, 200). He possesses a strong right leg, but it has not been tested under fire and that worries Donahue. One of the key performers on the squad will be center RUSSELL ROWELL (6-2½, 190, senior). He's another walk-on who earned a berth on the varsity with bullseye snaps on field goal and extra point attempts.

FALL ENROLLEES — The Bruins combed the country again last winter and landed another blue-chip crop of recruits. Freshmen enrollees, in alphabetical order are: Danny Andrews, tb, Wilmington, CA; Dave Baran, ot, Franklinville, NJ; Paul Bombolis, olb, Chino, CA; Neal Dellocono, tb-db, Baton Rouge, LA; Chuck Faucette, olb, Willingboro, NJ; Joe Gasser, db, Torrance, CA; Mike Hartmeier, og, Salinas, CA; Drake Hodge, ot, Tulare, CA; Steve Jarecki, olb, Napa, CA; Fred Krzysiak, te, Chino, CA; Duval Love, og, Fountain Valley, CA; David Norrie, qb, Portland, OR; Tony Phillips, fb, Santa Monica, CA; Ron Pitts, db, Orchard Park, NY; Burness Scott, tb, Lynwood, CA; Tommy Taylor, ilb, Chattanooga, TN; Mark Walen, dt, Burlingame, CA; Brian Wiley, fb, Harbor City, CA. UCLA also signed one junior college transfer for fall enrollment. He is Mike Mahan, olb, Bell, CA.

GENERAL OUTLOOK — "For UCLA to have a successful football season — and that is what I expect — I believe most important of all is that we stay healthy," says head coach Terry Donahue. "There are certain areas where we are not as deep or as experienced as others and injuries there could severely hamper us. I can't minimize the loss of our graduating seniors. You just don't replace a Freeman McNeil, our all-time leading rusher, or a Kenny Easley, who maybe the best player in the history of the school — and that's not an exaggeration — in one season. But I believe we have the people to do that eventually. We have some real quality people on either side of the line of scrimmage and a lot of experience at some very key positions. I'll be very disappointed if we're not playing for a Rose Bowl bid at the end of the season."

TERRY DONAHUE

(UCLA '67)

Head Football Coach

Success is something that has been associated with Terry Donahue throughout his UCLA career. Now entering his sixth season as the Bruins' head football coach, the 37-year-old Donahue ranks among the top mentors in the country.

His 38-17-2 record has already stamped him as one of the outstanding head coaches in UCLA history. No other Bruin football coach ever won as many games in his first five seasons. Tommy Prothro posted 35 victories in the same span, three less than Terry, and Red Sanders won 33 times.

His average of 7.6 victories per season is the best of any UCLA coach. Only Sanders (.733) and Prothro (.686) rank ahead of Donahue (.684) in the category of winning percentage among coaches with three or more years of service.

His two nine-victory seasons is a feat only the legendary Sanders can match among former Bruin coaches. He led the Bruins to the 1976 Liberty Bowl and 1978 Fiesta Bowl. No other UCLA coach has more post-season appearances.

His 25-11 record in Pacific-10 Conference play and four second-place finishes are worthy of note. His .694 conference winning percentage is second only to Sanders among coaches with three or more years of service in Westwood.

His 38 regular-season victories are the second most by a Pac-10 coach over the last five years. Among those successes are several that stand out. His debut was a memorable, 28-10 upset of Arizona State to open the 1976 season. Later that year, Terry directed a 30-21 triumph over Washington, UCLA's first win in Seattle since 1958.

In 1978 Donahue's Bruins shut out Tennessee, 13-0, in Knoxville, making Terry the only UCLA coach to ever win a game in the state of Tennessee. Another defeat of Washington made Donahue the first coach since Sanders to beat the Huskies three straight seasons (1976-77-78). Last season the Bruins blanked Ohio State, 17-0, in Columbus enroute to six successive wins and then presented their head coach with his first triumph over cross-town rival USC.

Donahue has been called upon to man the sideline at post-season all-star games the last three years. He was an assistant for the 1979 Hula Bowl and 1980 East-West Shrine Game, and the head coach of the West squad for the 1981 Shrine Game.

A head coach has to do more than guide the fortunes of his team on the field and Terry Donahue has shown the same outstanding abilities to handle the other important facets of the job. He is always in tremendous demand as a banquet speaker and his pleasant, easy-going manner makes him an inviting interview for the media.

Another of those vital areas is recruiting and Donahue's record here is as remarkable as his success on the playing field. In his five full recruiting years, he has landed no less than 39 first-team high school All-Americas, including four who signed professional baseball contracts and never reached the Westwood campus. His 1977 class was judged best in the nation and this past year UCLA had 12 players who were either drafted by the National Football League or signed contracts as free agents. The selections of tailback Freeman McNeil No. 3 by the New York Jets and safety Kenny Easley No. 4 by the Seattle Seahawks marked the two highest choices from one college in the past 14 years.

Although Donahue turned over the duties of defensive coordinator to Jed Hughes in 1977, it wasn't until last season that he appointed an offensive coordinator (Homer Smith). He felt the step was a significant one for him because it represented another major delegation of responsibility. He believes that move was necessary because of the commitments that are incumbent with the head coaching position. In the past he tried to be involved in everything, but learned that was next to impossible at a major university like UCLA.

Only the third former Bruin player to become head coach at his alma mater (Bert LaBrucherie and George Dickerson were the others), Donahue took over in February, 1976, after Dick Vermeil was appointed head coach of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. His first season was a great one as he led the Bruins to a 9-2-1 mark and a Liberty Bowl berth and became the only Bruin coach ever to win nine games in his rookie year. UCLA played its first 10 games without a loss (9-0-1), rose to No. 2 in both wire service polls and finished the year ranked second nationally in scoring and rushing offense and fourth in total offense.

In 1977, despite numerous injuries to key personnel, the Bruins finished the year with a 7-4 record and just missed earning a spot in the Rose Bowl, despite a 2-3 start. Only a field goal with two seconds remaining in the season finale kept them from playing in Pasadena.

In 1978, the Bruins had another fine year, earning a Fiesta Bowl bid and fashioning an 8-3-1 record. Highlights included a season-opening victory over defending Rose Bowl champion Washington, a school-record 10 interceptions against California and a No. 12 ranking on the final UPI poll.

The Bruins faced one of the toughest schedules in school history in 1979 and suffered numerous crippling injuries as a result. Three losses by a total of 10 points midway through the season dropped the Bruins from the championship picture but they still rallied to win three of their final five games. Highlights of the year included a 31-21 victory over Purdue, a 28-27 come-from-behind win over California and a school rushing record for tailback Freeman McNeil.

Last season the Bruins rolled through their first six opponents enroute to a No. 2 national ranking. After losing the next two games, they closed out the campaign with three more victories and finished 13th in the final Associated Press poll. The 9-2 season was Donahue's best and the Bruins' finest in seven years.

Donahue first became associated with UCLA in the mid-1960's when he played for Tommy Prothro's first two UCLA squads (1965-66). From his defensive tackle position he helped lead the Bruins to their memorable 14-12 upset win over Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

He started 21 straight games during 1965 and 1966 while the Bruins compiled records of 8-2-1 and 9-1. Following graduation, Terry became one of the country's youngest major college assistants when, at the age of 23, he joined Pepper Rodgers' staff at the University of Kansas. At KU the young coach was in charge of the defensive line.

He stayed with Rodgers for four years at Kansas and then made the move back to his alma mater with Rodgers for the 1971 football season.

At UCLA, Donahue switched to the offensive line. He served in this capacity for three years under Rodgers (1971-73) and two years under Vermeil (1974-75). Among the Bruins Donahue has coached as either head man or assistant are center-guard Randy Cross, quarterback Jeff Dankworth, tailback Freeman McNeil and safety Oscar Edwards—all first-team All-American players—and linebacker Jerry Robinson and safety Kenny Easley, the only three-time consensus All-Americans in UCLA history.

Terry is also the only man ever to play and coach in a Rose Bowl as a Bruin, having started in the 1966 game and coached in the 1976 contest. He would like to become the first man ever to participate as a player, assistant and head coach while a Bruin, hopefully this season.

Born in Los Angeles on June 24, 1944, Terrence Michael Donahue began his athletic career at Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks where he starred as a linebacker. After playing freshman ball at San Jose State, Donahue returned to the San Fernando Valley where he spent one year at Los Angeles Valley College but did not play football.

He then came to UCLA in 1964 as a "walk-on" football player. He didn't see action in his first season as a Bruin offensive lineman but with his move to the defensive line early in 1965, he earned a starting spot and held it for two years. At 6-0, 195 pounds he lacked size but more than made up for it with desire and hard work.

Donahue is married to the former Andrea Sogas, whom he met and married while coaching at Kansas. They are the proud parents of three daughters, Nicole Denise, 9, Michele Lynn 6, and Jennifer Erin, 2. The Donahue family currently resides in Westlake Village.

THE COACHING STAFF
(In Alphabetical Order)
JIM COLLETTO
(UCLA '67)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Jim Colletto's perpetual smile will be even broader this season because of the prospect of coaching two potential All-Americans in tight end Tim Wrightman and tackle Luis Sharpe, both seniors.

One of UCLA's finest all-around athletes in the 1960s, Colletto rejoined his alma mater to handle tackles and tight ends last season. Actually, it was the second tour of duty for the former Bruin football and baseball star. He served two seasons as an assistant coach under Tommy Prothro following his graduation in 1967.

An extremely versatile performer, Colletto played fullback and linebacker as a sophomore, fullback and defensive end as a junior and defensive end as a senior. He capped his collegiate football career by serving as captain in 1965 and leading the Bruins to a big upset victory over Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

The team's leading rusher in 1963, Colletto was also a three-year letterman in baseball, serving as captain in 1965 and 1967 and earning All-Conference honors in the former year. He still ranks in UCLA's career Top Ten for at-bats, hits, doubles and runs batted in.

In 1967 Colletto was the head frosh football coach and in 1968 he handled the scout team while also being responsible for team fundamentals.

In 1969, he became an assistant coach at Brown University. Colletto spent the next two years (1970-71) at Xavier of Ohio and then moved to the University of Pacific for three years (1972-74), coaching the offensive line in every instance.

Following the 1974 season, Colletto was appointed head coach at Cal State Fullerton and led the Titans for five seasons (1975-79). While at Fullerton he helped develop All-American running back Obie Graves.

A native of San Francisco, Colletto attended Monterey High School and earned a total of 10 letters in football (four), baseball (four) and basketball (two). He was a football prep All-American in 1962 and earned All-League honors three times in baseball.

Colletto, who will be 37 on Oct. 2, is married to the former Suzanne Gratiot, who spent two years as a UCLA song girl, and they have three children: Dawn, 11; Dan, 9; and Patrick, 2.

BOB FIELD

(Arkansas '71)
Assistant Varsity Coach

With a contractor for a father-in-law and a father in the construction business, Bob Field is well versed in those areas. He'll be involved in some reconstruction this season, rebuilding the outside linebacker corps. This shouldn't ruffle Bob's quiet demeanor since he went through the same test under fire during the 1979 campaign.

Early season injuries cut down starters Brad Plemmons and Glenn Windom and forced Field to go to war with untested juniors Larry Hall and Scott Stauch. Hall and Stauch learned their lessons so well from Field that the duo was impossible to unseat when the former starters returned to duty last year.

Field left UCLA after the 1979 season to enter private business in Texas. When outside linebacker coach Howard Tippett departed for the pro coaching ranks after the 1980 season, Field reapplied and was rehired for his former post.

Prior to coming to UCLA in 1978, Field was a member of the Mississippi State University coaching staff. In 1977, in addition to his other duties, he served as the Bulldog assistant head coach.

In all, Field spent five seasons at Mississippi State coaching the defensive backs. He did double duty by also serving as defensive coordinator.

Field, 32, gained valuable experience during his collegiate playing career at Arkansas. He was a three-year (1968-70) letterman for Frank Broyles and became a regular in the defensive backfield midway through his sophomore season. In his three years on the varsity, the Razorbacks compiled a record of 28-5, including a Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia.

An outstanding high school athlete at Farwell (Tex.) High School, Field earned four letters in football, three in basketball and two in track.

Bob assisted Broyles with Razorback Spring Practice in 1971 before joining the staff of Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama. He spent two seasons (1971-72) assisting in the coaching of the Crimson Tide secondary and Alabama won the Southeastern Conference championship both years.

Mississippi State was Field's next stop. During his five years he coached the secondary, was defensive coordinator and finally in 1977, was elevated to the position of assistant head coach. In 1974, he helped the Bulldogs to a Sun Bowl victory over North Carolina, 26-24.

Field is married to the former Judy Hurley and they have three sons, Kyle 8, Brian 6, and Michael 1. The Fields now reside in Westlake Village.

TOM HAYES

(Iowa '71)
Assistant Varsity Coach

After coaching three-time consensus All-American safety Kenny Easley through his final season at UCLA, Tom Hayes is asking himself, "What will I do for an encore?" Last season the Bruins ranked second in the Pacific-10 Conference in pass defense, interceptions, fewest passing touchdowns allowed and fewest yards per passing attempt. Much of that can be traced to Easley, his fellow defensive backs and the coaching of Hayes.

Hayes came to UCLA a year ago from Cal State Fullerton, where he worked as defensive coordinator under fellow Bruin assistant Jim Colletto. During the 1979 season, his only one at Fullerton, Tom had the Titans leading the Pacific Coast Athletic Association in total defense as well as pass defense after ranking dead last the previous campaign.

A native of Keokuk, Iowa, Hayes is eagerly looking forward to UCLA's Sept. 26 game at Iowa for many reasons. He began his coaching career as secondary coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, IA, after two seasons as a high school assistant. In his one season at Coe (1973), the secondary set a Midwest Conference record with 27 interceptions while the team won the league title.

His next stop was Carroll, IA, where he served as head coach at Kuemper High School for three seasons (1974-76) before returning to his alma mater, the University of Iowa. Hayes spent the next two seasons (1977-78) as the Hawkeye secondary coach before becoming defensive coordinator at Cal State Fullerton.

Hayes, 32, attended Atlantic (IA) High School where he was a multi-sport star, earning a total of nine letters in football, basketball and track (three each) as well as All-State honors in both football and basketball. At the University of Iowa, he was a three-year starter in the secondary and signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals at the end of his collegiate career. He graduated in 1971 with a degree in business administration.

Hayes, whose brother-in-law, Ed Podolak, was a running back for the Kansas City Chiefs, is married to the former Cindy Kuiken and they have a son, Andy, 4, and a daughter, Lindsay, 1.

RON HUDSON

(California '69)
Assistant Varsity Coach

After grooming All-American tailback Freeman McNeil the past two seasons, Ron Hudson will now direct his talents toward sophomore Kevin Nelson. Under his guidance, McNeil set UCLA single-season and career rushing records with 1,396 and 3,195 yards, respectively, and Nelson established Bruin freshman single-game and seasonal standards of 186 and 481 yards respectively. Obviously, Hudson is interested in productive running backs.

Aside from one season at Miramonte High in Orinda, CA, Ron has spent his entire coaching career in the Pacific-10 Conference. Prior to coming to UCLA in December, 1978, he coached two seasons at the University of Oregon (1977-78) where he was a key member of former UCLA assistant Rich Brooks' staff.

At Oregon, Hudson, 35, had the dual role of running back coach and recruiting coordinator and was responsible for recruiting many of the current Duck stars. He had been named Oregon's quarterback coach just prior to being hired by UCLA.

Born on Feb. 13, 1946 in Oakland, Calif., Hudson was an all-around star at Miramonte High, lettering in football, basketball, track and tennis. After a stint with the San Diego Marines, for whom he played football, Ron attended Diablo Valley College and lettered in football and basketball. He then transferred to California, where he played rugby and basketball. He is still an active rugby player and his father served as Cal rugby coach for 36 years.

Hudson began his coaching career at his alma mater, spending two years (1969-70) as a graduate assistant at Cal before assuming a similar position at Stanford in 1971. When Stanford assistant Mike White was named head coach at California, Hudson became a member of the staff.

Hudson spent five years at Berkeley, serving as both defensive line and receiver coach. He helped the Bears win a share of the 1975 Pacific-8 title while tutoring receiving standouts Steve Rivera and Wesley Walker. Ron has extensive knowledge of all facets of the passing game from his work at Stanford and Cal. He then joined Brooks' staff at Oregon.

DR. JED HUGHES

(Gettysburg College '70)
Assistant Varsity Coach
and Defensive Coordinator

Now entering the fifth year as UCLA's defensive coordinator, Jed Hughes is the senior coordinator in the Pacific-10 Conference—on either side of the line of scrimmage. Hughes proved his versatility last season when he shifted responsibilities from handling the Bruin inside linebackers to coaching the defensive line. It marked the first time in seven years that he hadn't handled the linebackers.

As a teacher, a motivator or a recruiter, Jed Hughes has few equals. Over the past five recruiting seasons, he has been the major factor in UCLA's phenomenal success with out-of-state prospects. He has personally been responsible for the signing of 19 prep All-Americans, including former stars Kenny Easley, Arthur Akers and Larry Lee; current starters Luis Sharpe, Irv Eatman, Ron Butler and Dan Dufour, and incoming freshmen Danny Andrews, Dave Baran and Ron Pitts.

His record as a coach has been just as outstanding. He has tutored All-America linebackers in four of the last six years (Michigan's Calvin O'Neal in 1975 and UCLA's Jerry Robinson in 1976-77-78). During his three seasons as a Michigan assistant, the Wolverines compiled a record of 28-3-3 and since his arrival at UCLA, the Bruins have compiled a record of 38-17-2. Thus, in his last eight years as an assistant coach, Hughes' teams have compiled a record of 66-20-5 for a .753 winning percentage.

He started his collegiate career as a coach at Stanford. During his two seasons (1971-72) the Cardinals posted a record of 15-8, including a 13-12 Rose Bowl victory over Michigan for three seasons before arriving at UCLA.

A graduate of Gettysburg (PA) College in Biology and Physical Education in 1970, Hughes received his Masters Degree in Education from Stanford and his Ph.D. in Education Administration from Michigan in 1975. While at Gettysburg, he was a two-year starter in both football and baseball. He was born Nov. 14, 1947 in New York City.

Hughes attended Newark (N.J.) Academy prior to going to Gettysburg College, competing in basketball, baseball, and football, captaining the latter two sports and winning All-New Jersey State baseball honors for three years. After graduation, he coached and taught at Biglerville (PA) High one year (1970).

The 33-year-old Hughes is married to the former Carol Reaver of Gettysburg, PA.

DON RILEY

Assistant Varsity Coach

One of the two remaining members of Terry Donahue's first UCLA coaching staff, Don Riley is now in his sixth season of coaching Bruin centers and guards. Not only is he a steadying influence on the staff and players, but an excellent teacher as well. Don has tutored a number of fine players, five of whom are currently playing professionally.

One of the most experienced and respected members of the coaching staff, Riley is in his 16th season as a collegiate coach. Including his nine terms as a high school mentor, Don is now coaching for the 25th straight year.

Before coming to Westwood in 1976, Riley spent four years at Oklahoma State (1972-75). Prior to that, he served six years at Vanderbilt (1966-71). If anything, Don's background is diverse. He has coached every position in collegiate football except the defensive line.

Following graduation from East Tennessee State University in Johnson City in 1956, he coached first at Lynch (KY) High, his alma mater, for three years (1956-58); one year (1959) at East Tennessee State, and then six years (1960-65) as head coach and athletic director at Greeneville (TN) High. Incidentally, in nine years of prep coaching, Don's teams won 70 percent of their games.

A fine athlete, Riley was an All-Kentucky State quarterback at Lynch High where he lettered in basketball as well. He then went to Lamar (CO) Junior College and starred at quarterback for one season. He transferred to East Tennessee State and played quarterback for three years. He also played two years of college baseball.

Born in Dungannon, VA, he is married to the former Carol Pierce of Lynch. They have three children, Donna, 20; Karen, 17, and Roger, 14.

HOMER SMITH

(Princeton '54)
Assistant Varsity Coach and Offensive Coordinator

In the 1970s, he installed UCLA's awesome Wishbone-T offense. Now, a decade later, he has retooled the Bruins' potent passing game. Homer Smith has proven himself a brilliant offensive innovator. As Terry Donahue's first offensive coordinator, he can call on 22 years experience in college coaching, including 12 as a head coach.

During his first tour as a Bruin assistant, Smith coordinated UCLA's Wishbone under Pepper Rodgers. In 1972 and 1973, the Bruins compiled a 17-5 combined record, rewriting the school record book by averaging 42.7 points and 470.6 total yards in '73—standards that still exist.

Following that 1973 campaign, Homer followed Rodgers to Georgia Tech but was appointed head coach at Army prior to the 1974 season. The cadets were noted for their offense during the next five years (1974-78) and in 1976 quarterback Leamon Hall ranked sixth nationally in passing and seventh in total offense.

Homer starred in football, basketball and track at Omaha (NE) Benson High and prepped at Lawrenceville School in Lawrence, NJ, before entering Princeton. There he won All-East and All-Ivy League honors at fullback as a junior and senior, and also was a standout in track. His biggest day as a collegian came in 1952 when he smashed school records by rushing for 273 yards and scoring four touchdowns. He graduated in 1954 with honors in economics.

Smith's collegiate coaching career began in 1958 when he was named head frosh coach at Stanford. After three seasons (1958-60), he became backfield coach at the Air Force Academy, a position he held for four years (1961-64).

He then became a collegiate head coach, taking over at Davidson in 1965. He served in that capacity for five years (1965-69) and capped his career there by leading the team to a berth in the 1969 Tangerine Bowl. Then it was on to University of the Pacific, where he served for two seasons (1970-71) before joining the Bruin staff for the first time.

Smith, who has written numerous magazine articles and books on offense, was the 1969 regional Coach of the Year while at Davidson and the 1977 Eastern College Coach of the Year. He is married to the former Kathryn Haskell and they have two daughters, Kimberly, 25, and Carolyn, 22. (Smith was born on Oct. 9, 1931).

TED WILLIAMS

(Cal Poly Pomona '65)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Ted Williams made a habit of winning with young people during his years as a high school coach. He'll be asked to accept the challenge this season of tutoring a group of very inexperienced inside linebackers—no starters and only minimal playing time among five returnees.

He joined the UCLA staff in March, 1980 from Los Angeles City College, where he had been named head coach in February. Prior to moving to LACC, he had been head coach at Compton (CA) High School where he built a reputation as one of the most respected prep coaches in the area.

During six seasons as the Tarbabe head coach, Williams compiled a record of 44-21-3. In 1978, his team captured the CIF Coastal Conference championship. A year later Compton was CIF runner-up to Moore League rival Long Beach Millikan and Williams was honored as Coastal Conference Coach of the Year. In addition, he led his team to a 21-game winning streak (snapped by Millikan). Compton lost a total of three games in Ted's final three years.

Prior to becoming head coach at Compton, he worked at the school for six seasons as an assistant coach. His assignments included tackles and tight ends, linebackers and defensive ends, down linemen, receivers, running backs and quarterbacks, giving him first-hand knowledge on coaching many different positions.

In addition to his coaching assignments, Williams also served as Compton athletic director from 1974-77 and taught biology, mathematics and physical education. At various times he was also chairman of the Football Advisory Committee for Academic Counseling, advisor to the Compton Youth Athletic Association Football Program, Compton senior class sponsor and orientation chairman, summer school principal and acting counselor for athletic scholarship recipients. He also served as head coach in the 1979 Kiwanis 605 All-Star football game.

Williams, 37, graduated from Cal Poly Pomona in 1965 with a degree in physical education. While at Pomona, he lettered in basketball and baseball. He also owns a Masters Degree in Physical Education as well as Standard Teaching, Supervision and Administrative Credentials from Cal State University, Los Angeles.

A native of Lyons, TX, Williams is married to the former Gwendolyn Tolliver and they have two children, Darryl, 11, and Terri, 9.

NORM ANDERSEN
(UCLA '76)
Part-Time Assistant Coach

There may be no better part-time assistant coach in the country than Norm Andersen. Just ask UCLA's wide receivers or check their improvement in the past few seasons. The job of instructing the highly skilled Bruin wideouts is a natural for Norm, who still ranks as one of UCLA's all-time leading receivers.

Andersen served as a volunteer coach in 1978 and became a part-time assistant in 1979. That season Jojo Townsell averaged 22 yards per reception and caught six passes for touchdowns. Last year Cormac Carney pulled in 33 passes, the most by a Bruin receiver in a decade.

Andersen, 28, was a three-year starter at UCLA (1973-75) and led the club in receptions twice (1973-74). He climaxed his career by playing in the 1976 Rose Bowl and was the team's second-leading pass catcher during that 1975 campaign.

Norm caught a total of 61 passes for 1,051 yards and a 17.2-yard average. His 61 receptions still rank fourth on the Bruins' career list. An All-Pacific-8 Conference first-team selection in 1974, Andersen was chosen on the 11th round of the 1976 NFL draft by the Chicago Bears.

RON DAVIS
Part-Time Assistant Coach

Ron Davis is in his second year on the UCLA coaching staff after a fine career as a Bruin offensive lineman. Last season he served as a volunteer coach and this is his first campaign as a part-time assistant.

His primary duty will be to assist defensive coordinator Jed Hughes with coaching the defensive line, specifically the nose guards. In addition, he will also be in charge of the offensive scout team and assist with the film exchange program.

Ron and his brother Bruce arrived at UCLA in 1975 after earning prep All-America honors at Lackey High School in Indian Head, Maryland. He played three seasons (1977-78-79) with the varsity as an offensive guard and joined the coaching staff last season.

BILL REES

(Ohio Wesleyan '76)
Athletic Department Recruiting Coordinator

Now in his third year as the athletic depatment recruiting coordinator, Bill Rees has been instrumental in UCLA signing 15 All-American football players during the past two recruiting seasons. He originally joined the Bruin administration in April of 1979 as recruiting coordinator and strength coach.

A native of Peoria, IL, Bill is responsible for the evaluation of prospective student-athletes, both athletically and academically, for all UCLA sports.

Rees, 27, came to UCLA from Northwestern University. There he coached for three seasons (1976-78), one tutoring the defensive backs and two as coach of the offensive backs.

A multi-sport star at New Trier East High, Bill earned two letters each in football, basketball and baseball. He graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1976 after lettering three years in football.

DONN SWANBOM

(Nebraska '76)
Athletic Department Strength and Conditioning Coach

The overall success of the UCLA men's and women's intercollegiate athletic programs in the 1980-81 season can be attributed in part to the tremendous strides made by Strength and Conditioning coach Donn Swanbom. The individual and team championships brought back to Westwood are the result of talent, training and coaching plus long hours in the weight room under Donn's direction.

Swanbom, 27, came to UCLA in 1980 from Southern Methodist University where he had spent the previous three years (1977-79) as head strength coach. Prior to that, he spent two seasons (1975-76) as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska, his alma mater. Included among the athletes with whom he has worked are current .NFL stars John Dutton, A.J. Duhe, Monte Johnson, Arthur Whittington, Rick Bonness, Tony Davis and Rick Berns.

A native of Scottsbluff, NE, Swanbom attended Gering (NE) High School and earned All-State honors and three letters in football. He also earned two letters in wrestling and was a national tournament qualifier in the freestyle category.

He then lettered twice in football at Fort Hays Kansas State University before transferring to Nebraska. He graduated in 1976 with a degree in Physical Education after beginning his coaching career with the Cornhuskers.

Swanbom also authors books on strength, including his latest, titled, Strength of the UCLA Bruins, for use by UCLA athletes.

In addition, all 11 games will be telecast on a delayed basis by KTLA channel 5. Joe Buttitta, who also handles the sports news for KTLA, will call the play-by-play with former UCLA football player Rob Scribner handling the color chores. The games will be televised Saturday nights at 11:00 p.m.

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES OF UCLA PLAYERS

6-3¼, 245, Jr., Sacramento, CA

UCLA — Probably the Bruins' most versatile defensive lineman . . . Can play both inside (in a four-man alignment) and outside (in UCLA's regular three-man formation) . . . Was a regular on the Bruins' even-front alignment and figures to perform that duty again this season . . . In addition, he enters Fall practice as the No. 2 defensive left tackle and will probably be the first alternate . . . A very smart player . . . Started two games in which the Bruins opened with a four-man alignment . . . Made a total of 25 tackles, including 17 primary stops . . . A fine pass rusher, he was credited with five hurries . . . Was at his best against Ohio State, making six total tackles, including a sack of Art Schlichter, and hurrying three passes . . . Saw action in 1979 as a second-year freshman, making four tackles (two sacks and a third behind the line of scrimmage) . . . Arrived at UCLA in 1978 but did not see action that season, redshirting instead . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Max Miller at Rio Americano High School in Carmichael, CA . . . Attended Christian Brothers High in Sacramento for three years before transferring to Rio Americano . . . Made 69 tackles as a senior . . . A three-year prep starter . . . Earned All-Metro, All-County and All-League honors . . . Also lettered in track and baseball . . . PERSONAL — Born in his hometown of Sacramento, CA . . . Did not begin playing football until the ninth grade . . . Likes to relax by getting back to nature (camping, fishing, hiking) . . . His most memorable playing experiences include UCLA's 17-0 victory over Ohio State in which he forced Art Schlichter from the game and blocking a field goal attempt as a prep senior . . . Majoring in History . . . Full name is Michael Duane Barbee.

94 PAUL BERGMANN, Tight End
6-1¾, 224, So., Granada Hills, CA
UCLA — Had a good Spring Practice in which he improved his blocking ability and that could help him move up the tight end ladder . . . Has promise but has been hampered by injuries during his Bruin career . . . Did not see action last season and redshirted, thus he is still a sophomore . . . Fell behind other tight ends last season due to a badly sprained ankle and was never able to catch up . . . Has good hands and should make a contribution this year . . . Saw very limited action as a freshman in 1979, participating on special teams . . . Missed Spring 1980 due to off-season shoulder surgery . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Jack Neumeier at Granada Hills (CA) High School . . . As a senior he led the State in receptions (72) and yardage (1,257 yards) and was tied for second with 13 touchdowns . . . Led Los Angeles City in receptions, yardage, touchdowns and points (121) . . . Scored a school-record 161 points in his career . . . Earned All-City, All-San Fernando Valley and All-League honors as a senior . . . Played in 1979 Shrine Game . . . Also played defense, earning All-Valley honors as a linebacker in 1977 . . . Served as captain . . . Also lettered in track . . . High school teammate of UCLA's Blanchard Montgomery and Stanford's John Elway . . . PERSONAL — Born in Los Angeles . . . Hometown is Granada Hills . . . 14 TOM RAMSEY, Quarterback

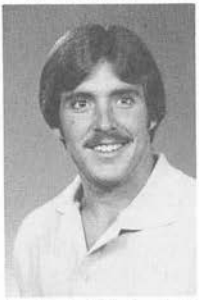
6-1, 189, Jr., Granada Hills, CA



UCLA — Firmly established himself as the Bruins' starting quarterback with an outstanding sophomore season in which he started 10 games and earned third-team Sophomore All-America honors . . . Retained that status throughout Spring Practice and should be in control when UCLA opens its season on Sept. 12 . . . Has improved in all areas of execution and should have an even better season in 1981 since the Bruins' attack has been adjusted slightly to take advantage of his strengths . . . Will probably run more options than he did a year ago . . . Has an excellent "touch" when throwing the football . . . Has strong leadership qualities that go beyond physical abilities . . . Started the first 10 games last season, ranking among the nation's passing leaders much of the time . . . Passed for 1,116 yards last year, the most ever by a UCLA sophomore with the exception of Gary Beban in 1965 . . . His 82 completions placed him fifth on the school's all-time single season list and first among sophomores and were the most at UCLA since Dennis Dummit completed 175 in 1970 . . . Finished the season ranked fourth among Pacific-10 quarterbacks with a rating of 132.1, thanks to a completion percentage of .554, nine touchdowns and only five interceptions . . . His .554 percentage was the best by a Bruin since Beban's .557 in 1967 . . . Enters the 1981 season in ninth place on UCLA's career passing list with 98 completions despite having started only 12 games thus far in his career . . . Was at his best early in the season, leading the Bruins to a 6-0 record, including victories over Purdue, Ohio State and Stanford . . . Accounted for 12 touchdowns rushing and passing in the first seven games, including three each against Colorado and California . . . Passed for 170 yards (8 of 16) and one touchdown against Purdue, 157 (12 of 20) and one touchdown against Stanford and 154 (11 of 16) and two touchdowns against California . . . The following week against Arizona he passed for a career-high 197 yards (12 of 22) and two touchdowns . . . In one four-game stretch (Ohio State, Stanford, California and Arizona) Ramsey completed 42 of 69 attempts (.609) for 600 yards and six touchdowns . . . Also completed five of six passes against Colorado, six of 12 against Wisconsin and eight of 11 for 92 yards against Ohio State . . . Rushed for four touchdowns, tying him with Kevin Nelson for the second highest number behind Freeman McNeil . . . Started twice as a freshman but really made his mark by leading Bruins to 31-28 come-from-behind victory over Arizona State, scoring the winning touchdown with nine seconds remaining on the clock . . . Earned his first varsity start the following week and threw two touchdown passes in UCLA's 35-0 victory against Oregon . . . Started and played first half of season finale against USC . . . For the year he completed 16 of 37 passes for 273 yards and four touchdowns and rushed for two more scores, meaning he has accounted for 19 touchdowns rushing (six) and passing (13) as a Bruin . . . Longest pass completion of 1980 travelled 45 yards but the longest of his career is a 63-yard touchdown to Jojo Townsell against Arizona State as a freshman . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach John Haynes at Kennedy High School in Granada Hills, CA . . . Earned All-America honorable mention as a senior by passing for 1,432 yards . . . Accounted for over 2,000 passing yards as a junior . . . Earned second-team All-City as well as first-team All-Valley and All-Mid Valley League honors . . . 1977 San Fernando Valley Back of the Year . . . Passed for more than 200 yards six times, topped by 273-yard effort (20 of 39 passes) . . . Team MVP and captain in 1978 . . . Played in 1979 Shrine Game . . . PERSONAL — Born in Encino, CA . . . Hometown is Granada Hills . . . Hobbies include water and snow skiing and fishing . . . Lists defeating Purdue and Ohio State among his most memorable athletic experiences . . . 7 DON ROGERS, Free Safety

6-1, 207, So., Sacramento, CA

UCLA — This young man could be UCLA's next great free safety . . . Coaching staff feels he has many of the same qualities as former Bruin Kenny Easley, a three-time consensus All-America . . . Has great range and above average size for the position . . . His physical stature reminds people of Easley but to compare him with an all-time great is not fair at this stage of his career . . . An extremely physical athlete who makes jarring tackles . . . Still learning the system but figures to be a fine player in the near future . . . Saw limited action last season behind Easley, making five tackles . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Homer Mascarro at Norte Del Rio High School in Sacramento, CA . . . Played both defensive back and quarterback . . . Earned All-Metro, All-City and All-League acclaim for his fine play . . . Averaged seven tackles per game and intercepted five passes defensively while passing for 975 yards and eight touchdowns and rushing for 450 yards and four scores offensively . . . Also lettered in basketball and track . . . Earned All-Northern California and All-City honors in basketball and was chosen MVP of his league . . . In track, he competed for the State championship in the 100 yard dash and the 120 yard high hurdles and had best times of 9.8 and 14.1, respectively . . . Served as captain in all three sports . . . PERSONAL — Born in Texarkana, AR . . . His most memorable athletic experience was throwing a 70-yard touchdown pass to give his junior high school team a 14-13, last-second victory . . . Oldest of three children . . . Strives to be the best at everything he does . . . Enjoys playing basketball, running track and spending time with his family . . . Majoring in Economics . . . Full name is Donald Lavert Rogers.

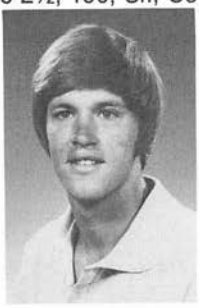
52 RUSSELL ROWELL, Center
6-2½, 190, Sr., Corona Del Mar, CA



UCLA — Earned letter as a walk-on last season . . . Specializes in long snaps for punts and placements and handled this job throughout the season . . . Biggest advantage is in practice because kickers can work all day with the regular snapper instead of switching from center to center . . . His presence also frees regular centers to concentrate on their blocking assignments . . . Enters Fall listed No. 4 at center but will be the starting long snapper . . . Was a member of UCLA's 1981 varsity crew that finished second in the Pacific-10, rowing in the No. 8 position (stroke) . . . JUNIOR COLLEGE — Transferred to UCLA from Orange Coast College when he participated in football and crew for two seasons . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Dick Morris at Corona Del Mar (CA) High School . . . Earned All-League honors as a senior . . . PERSONAL — Born in Pasadena, CA . . . Hometown is Corona Del Mar . . . His most memorable athletic moment occurred last Spring when the UCLA varsity crew, trailing by nine seats, rallied to defeat California by open water . . . It was UCLA's first win over the Golden Bears in 10 years . . . Majoring in Business Economics . . . Full name is Russell Henry Rowell.

19 TOA SAIPALE, Fullback
6-1½, 227, Jr., Oxnard, CA

UCLA — Returns to the Bruin varsity after a year's absence due to personal reasons . . . Progress was slowed by the layoff but he began to improve quickly during the latter half of Spring Practice . . . A former starter, he will have to work extremely hard to unseat returning starter Frank Bruno but does figure to see a great deal of playing time as the No. 2 fullback . . . Has been working with weights to improve strength . . . Had a fine sophomore season in 1979, starting eight games and rushing for 279 yards on 71 attempts (3.9 average) . . . Rushed for a career-high 52 yards against Wisconsin, including a long run of 24 yards . . . Lettered as a freshman in 1978, seeing action as a reserve fullback and a special teams performer . . . Carried four times for 30 yards . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Joel Gershon at Channel Islands High School in Oxnard, CA . . . Rushed for 1,243 yards in 10 games, averaging 7.1 yards per attempt and earned All-America honorable mention . . . Scored 14 touchdowns . . . Second-team CIF Division II and league MVP as senior . . . Also lettered in basketball and track, helping basketball team win CIF title twice and capturing league long jump championship as a junior . . . PERSONAL — Born in Los Angeles . . . Hometown is Oxnard . . . Enjoys playing many musical instruments, including guitar and drums . . . Psychology major . . . Full name is Faitotoa William Saipale.

VARSITY STATISTICS

1978 — Rushing: 4 for 30 net yards, 7.5 average, 0 TD's
1979 — Rushing: 71 for 279 net yards, 3.9 average, 1 TD

5-9½, 186, Jr., Visalia, CA

UCLA — The top returning cornerback on the West Coast following a sophomore season in which he earned All-America honorable mention and All-Pacific-10 second-team acclaim . . . Enters 1981 with 19 consecutive starts at left corner . . . Possesses great speed (4.6 for 40 yards) and quickness and is very aggressive in his pursuit of the football . . . A great all-around athlete whose 33½ inch vertical leap is a valuable weapon when it comes to tipping away passes at the last moment . . . An intelligent performer who has progressed a long way in just two seasons and is ready for another stellar year in 1981 . . . Made 71 tackles a year ago, most among 1981 returnees, including 49 primary stops . . . Second only to defensive tackle Irv Eatman with seven tackles behind the line of scrimmage . . . Credited with breaking up a team-high 13 passes and tipped away five others . . . Won UCLA's Donn D. Moomaw Award for Outstanding Defensive Player of the USC Game following 13-tackle performance in 20-17 victory . . . Also intercepted one pass against the Trojans . . . Accounted for eight tackles against Stanford, California and Arizona State . . . Intercepted three passes, returning one 20 yards against Oregon . . . In addition, Sanchez is a valuable special teams performer . . . Returned four punts last season for a 15.3 average, topped by a 44-yard runback against Colorado . . . Moved into the starting lineup for the fourth game (Ohio State) of his freshman season and has been at left corner ever since . . . Made 36 tackles as a freshman, including 30 primary stops and three behind the line of scrimmage . . . Intercepted two passes for 22 yards and averaged 20.6 yards on nine kickoff returns . . .

67 LUIS SHARPE, Right Tackle
6-4¾, 250, Sr., Detroit, MI

UCLA — A bonafide honors candidate as one of the nation's finest offensive tackles . . . Earned All-America honorable mention acclaim last season and is highly regarded among professional scouts projecting for the 1982 NFL draft . . . A tremendous athlete who combines great size with speed (4.85 for 40 yards) and physical ability (35 inch vertical leap) . . . An excellent pass protector as well as a fine one-on-one run blocker . . . A versatile performer who has played guard and center in addition to tackle during his Bruin career . . . In fact, he was the team's No. 1 center during Spring Practice . . . Much deserving of post-season recognition . . . Has started 20 games at tackle over the past three seasons, including eight last year . . . Became a full-time starter in 1979, earning All-Pacific-10 second-team honors as well as All-America honorable mention while starting all 11 games . . . Lettered as a freshman reserve in 1978, playing tackle and guard as well as practicing at center . . . Started at guard against Arkansas in the Fiesta Bowl . . . Won UCLA's John F. Boncheff, Jr., Memorial Trophy for Rookie of the Year as a frosh standout . . . HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Joe Hoskins at Southwestern High School in Detroit, MI . . . Won All-America honors from the NHSACA as well as Parade, Coach & Athlete and Scholastic Coach magazines . . . Named to NHSACA Academic All-America team . . . Served as football captain . . . 32 TOM SULLIVAN, Free Safety
5-10½, 188, Jr., Northridge, CA

UCLA — Will be filling the big shoes of three-time All-American Kenny Easley this season but should be equal to the task . . . Is in his first season at free safety after starting 10 games at strong safety and earning second-team Sophomore All-America honors last year . . . Made a fine adjustment to his new position during Spring Practice . . . Has good intelligence and outstanding work habits . . . Possesses 4.7 speed . . . Will make all the secondary calls and adjustments this year, assuming another of Easley's roles . . . Playing his third position in three years, having played cornerback his first year with the varsity . . . Made 63 tackles last season, a total exceeded by only four teammates . . . Was at his best against Arizona State, making a career-high 11 tackles versus the Sun Devils . . . Also accounted for nine tackles against Arizona and eight versus California and Oregon . . . Intercepted four passes, second most on the team and tied for fifth among Pacific-10 Conference defensive backs . . . Stole two passes from California quarterback Rich Campbell . . . Also played on special teams, splitting punt return chores with Easley . . . Averaged 4.3 yards on 10 returns . . . Started the final five games of the 1979 season at right cornerback . . . Made 34 tackles for the year, including eight against Arizona State . . . Co-winner of UCLA's Captain Don Brown Memorial Trophy for Most Improved Player . . . Did not participate with the varsity in 1978 after earning a spot as a non-scholarship player and retained his eligibility . . . THE 1981 BRUINS

RETURNING VETERANS — 42 returning lettermen from the 1980 team that won its first six games, rose to No. 2 in the national polls and defeated USC for the first time in five seasons. Added to these veterans are a pair of 1979 returnees, tight end James Forge and fullback Toa Saipale. Returnees include: Offense — 2 tight ends, 2 zoom-tight ends, 5 tackles, 4 guards, 3 centers, 3 quarterbacks, 3 fullbacks, 2 tailbacks, 3 split ends and 3 flankers. Defense —4 tackles, 3 nose guards, 3 outside linebackers, 5 inside linebackers, 4 cornerbacks and 6 safeties, plus 1 long snapper, 2 placekickers and 1 punter. Of the returnees the following started 1980 games: Offense — Cormac Carney, se, 8; Dave Otey, c, 6; Dan Dufour, c, 5; Luis Sharpe, rt, 8; Tim Wrightman, te, 10; Tom Ramsey, qb, 10; Kevin Nelson, tb, 2; Frank Bruno, fb, 10; Jojo Townsell, fl, 5; Willie Curran, fl, 3. Defense — Joe Gary, lt, 9; Mike Barbee, lt, 2; Martin Moss, ng, 7; Karl Morgan, ng, 5; Irv Eatman, rt, 11; Blanchard Montgomery, ilb, 1; Lupe Sanchez, lc, 11; Mike Durden, lc, 1; Jimmy Turner, rc, 11; Tom Sullivan, ss, 10. Spring position changes saw backup right guard Don Mahlstedt moving to left tackle; defensive tackle Chris Yelich switching to offensive left guard; left guard Steve Williams jumping to center; center Dan Dufour going to right guard; zoom-tight end Scot Tiesing moving back to split end, fullback Chester Goynes returning to his natural tailback position, strong safety Sullivan shifting to free safety and right cornerback Turner shifting to strong safety. Leading the returnees are All-Coast first-team performers Tim Wrightman and Irv Eatman and All-Pacific-10 Conference second-team honorees Cormac Carney and Lupe Sanchez plus honorable mentions Dave Otey, Joe Gary and Karl Morgan. Wrightman, Eatman, Luis Sharpe, Tom Ramsey, Jojo Townsell, Sanchez and Sullivan all won All-American mention.

LOSSES — 20 lettermen, including: Offense — 1 split end, 2 tackles, 2 guards, 1 quarterback, 1 fullback, 2 tailbacks and 1 zoom-tight end. Defense — 4 outside linebackers, 2 inside linebackers and 2 safeties. Special teams — 1 punter, 1 placekicker. Starters included: Offense: Michael Brant, se, 3; Gregg Christiansen, lt, 9; Curt Mohl, lt, 5; Larry Lee, lg, 11; John Tautolo, rg, 11; Ronnie DeBose, zoom-te, 4; Jay Schroeder, qb, 1; Freeman McNeil, tb, 9; Jairo Penaranda, fb, 1; Defense — Scott Stauch, olb, 10; Larry Hall, olb, 11; Arthur Akers, ilb, 11; Avon Riley, ilb, 11; Kenny Easley, fs, 9. An additional loss was punter Matt McFarland, who handled those all-important chores for three seasons. Most serious losses were Easley, only the Bruins' second three-time consensus All-American, and McNeil, All-American as a senior and the school's single-season and career rushing leader. They were selected among the top four picks in the National Football League draft. Easley finished his UCLA career with 19 interceptions — six more than the previous Bruin record holder — and was the first player in Pacific-10 Conference annals to be selected all-conference first-team four straight seasons. He started 43 games as a Bruin. McNeil gained 1,396 yards as a junior, breaking the single-season standard, and finished with 3,195 to surpass Wendell Tyler as the all-time leader.

OFFENSE — Look for even more diversity in the Bruins' attack this season. "Don't be surprised if we come out using the shotgun formation sometime," says Terry Donahue. Last season UCLA added an extra or zoom tight end for blocking and motion purposes. This season Donahue hopes to see his quarterbacks throwing more passes to the running backs, particularly the tailbacks.

PASSING GAME — TOM RAMSEY (6-1, 189, junior) was the hottest quarterback in the country for the first six weekends last fall, but then went into a slump and needed to be rescued by Jay Schroeder in several late-season contests. Ramsey returns more confident than ever while Schroeder has decided to concentrate on his baseball career in the Toronto Blue Jays' organization. Ramsey started 10 of 11 games as a sophomore and became only the third UCLA soph to pass for more than 1,000 yards. Only Gary Beban (1,483) threw for more yardage as a second-year performer than Ramsey (1,116). His 82 completions in 148 attempts were the most by a Bruin since 1970 when Dennis Dummit set the school record of 175. And his percentage of .554 was the highest since Beban's .557 in 1967. His nine touchdown passes and only five interceptions contributed heavily to a player performance rating of 132.1, fourth highest in the Pac-10. Sophomores STEVE BONO (6-3½, 211) and RICK NEUHEISEL (6-0½, 202) provided Ramsey with plenty of competition in the spring and will keep the heat on him this fall as well. Bono saw action in four games as a freshman, completing 4 of 5 passes for 47 yards. Neuheisel redshirted last season after coming to UCLA as a walk-on and earning a scholarship. Tight end TIM WRIGHTMAN (6-3, 237, senior) is a preseason All-American and rightly so. There is probably no better blocking tight end in the nation and his pass receiving skills are equally respected. As a sophomore, Tim led UCLA in receptions with 22. Last season he was limited to 16, but still maintained his healthy career average of 14.2 yards per catch. He's virtually unstoppable one-on-one. Senior JAMES FORGE (6-2, 228) returns after a one-year layoff to add valuable depth to the tight end position. Handling the zoom position will be sophomore HARPER HOWELL (6-3, 218) and sophomore PAUL BERGMANN (6-2½, 244). UCLA returns all of its wideouts except for Michael Brant. Foremost are juniors CORMAC CARNEY (6-0, 209) and JOJO TOWNSELL (5-9½, 185), the Bruins' 1-2 receiving punch in 1980. Carney, who transferred from the Air Force Academy with tremendous credentials (57 catches, 870 yards, 8 touchdowns), proved no fluke when he pulled down 33 passes at a 17.9-yard-a-catch clip. He also led the club in kickoff returns with a 22.1-yard average on 13 attempts. Townsell hauled in 13 passes a year ago after catching 20 as a freshman. Carney will be backed up by MIKE YOUNG (6-1, 181, freshman) and SCOT TIESING (6-4½, 218, senior). Pushing Townsell will be seniors WILLIE CURRAN (5-9¾, 174) and RICKY COFFMAN (5-11½, 189). Curran caught seven passes in 1980 after a 20-catch sophomore season.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

In all of its football history, UCLA has seen fit to retire the uniforn numbers of only seven of its greatest players. The latest is free safety Kenny Easley, who wore No. 5 while earning consensus All-America honors three times.

The complete list includes: No. 5, Kenny Easley, safety, 1977-80; No. 13, Kenny Washington, halfback, 1937-39; No. 16, Gary Beban, quarterback, 1965-67; No. 34, Paul Cameron, tailback, 1951-53; No. 38, Burr Baldwin, offensive end, 1941-42 and 1946; No. 80, Donn Moomaw, linebacker, 1950-52; and No. 84, Jerry Robinson, linebacker, 1975-78.

Washington earned fame as UCLA's first All-America player while Beban is the only Bruin ever to win the coveted Heisman Trophy. Robinson and Easley are the only three-time All-Americans in UCLA history while Moomaw earned A-A honors twice and Cameron and Baldwin once each.

UCLA's 22ND YEAR IN PAC-10

UCLA has been a member of the Pacific-10 Conference since it was organized July 1, 1959, and was originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The other founding members were California, Stanford, USC, and Washington. Washington State became a member July 1, 1962. Oregon and Oregon State became members July 1, 1964 and the league was officially named the Pacific-8. On July 1, 1978, Arizona and Arizona State joined the conference and the league officially became the Pacific-10. Here is UCLA's grid record against traditional Pac-10 rivals since 1959:

1980 GAMES

September 13: UCLA 56, COLORADO 14
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

The Bruins exploded for 28 points in each of the first two quarters enroute to a 56-14 victory over the Golden Buffaloes. The 56 points were a school record for one half and quarterback Tom Ramsey was the main force behind the offensive outburst. The sophomore ran for two first-quarter touchdowns and passed 15 yards to Jojo Townsell for a third. Tailback Freeman McNeil rushed for 111 yards, all in the first half as UCLA piled up 314 yards total offense in the first 30 minutes. The Bruin defense was at its best in the first half, holding Colorado to 123 yards and forcing four turnovers that led to UCLA touchdowns.

September 20: UCLA 23, PURDUE 14
AT ROSS-ADE STADIUM, WEST LAFAYETTE, IN

UCLA improved its record to 2-0 by surprising the Purdue Boilermakers and quarterback Mark Herrmann, 23-14, in West Lafayette. The Bruins, employing six defensive backs in crucial situations, frustrated the All-American passer time and time again while totally shutting down the Purdue running game (65 net yards). Offensively, the

September 27: UCLA 35, WISCONSIN 0
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

Despite playing without tailback Freeman McNeil, the Bruins cruised to their third straight victory by overwhelming the Wisconsin Badgers, 35-0. Freshman Kevin Nelson rushed for 123 yards and one touchdown in his first varsity start while the defense took care of the Badgers. Wisconsin ran the ball 49 times and netted 68 yards for a 1.4 average and completed only 11 of 29 passes for 138 yards. Offensively, fullback Frank Bruno scored two first-half touchdowns while Nelson and tight end Ronnie DeBose added one each for a 28-0 halftime lead. For the afternoon, the Bruins accounted for 413 yards of total offense while holding the Badgers to just 206.

October 4: UCLA 17, OHIO STATE 0
AT OHIO STADIUM, COLUMBUS, OHIO

The Bruins found themselves ranked fifth on both wire service polls following their 17-0 shutout of Ohio State on the Buckeyes' home field. Defense was the name of the game and sophomore tackle Irv Eatman dominated the contest with four quarterback sacks and 9 total tackles. Every time All-American quarterback Art Schlichter, who accounted for just 59 net yards on 25 plays, turned around he was in Eatman's shadow. On the day, the Bruins held Ohio State to less than 3.5 yards per play. Offensively, Freeman McNeil, back in the lineup after missing the Wisconsin game, rushed for 118 yards and one touchdown while quarterback Tom Ramsey completed 8 of 11 passes for 92 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown to Jojo Townsell. The Bruins led 3-0 at halftime and broke the game open in the third quarter when McNeil and Townsell scored their touchdowns. The Buckeyes were unable to get any closer to the goal line than the Bruin 45 yard line until the fourth quarter.

October 11: UCLA 35, STANFORD 21
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

Behind one of the greatest rushing efforts in school history, the Bruins rallied from a 21-7 halftime deficit to defeat the Stanford Cardinals, 35-21, and move up to the fourth spot on both wire service polls. Tailback Freeman McNeil rushed for 248 yards and four touchdowns to help UCLA improve its record to 5-0. Stanford, behind two touchdowns by Darrin Nelson, led 21-7 in the third quarter when McNeil went to work. His 12-yard touchdown run got the Bruins close and later in the third quarter he raced 72 yards to tie the score at 21. In the fourth period, he scored on runs of 6 and 42 yards to tie his own record for most rushing touchdowns in one game. In all, he rushed for 220 yards in the final half and his total of 248 was the second-highest in school history, trailing Theotis Brown's 274-yard effort against Oregon in 1978. Quarterback Tom Ramsey had another fine afternoon, completing 12 of 20 passes for 157 yards and one touchdown. Seven of those passes were caught by split end Cormac Carney, who accounted for 116 yards with his receptions.

October 25: UCLA 32, CALIFORNIA 9
AT MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, CA

The Bruins entered their game against California ranked third nationally, having moved up one spot despite not playing on Oct. 18. Following their 32-9 victory over the Golden Bears, only Alabama ranked ahead of the 6-0 Bruins. For the sixth straight game, UCLA scored first, using a Norm Johnson field goal and a Tom Ramsey-to-Ronnie DeBose touchdown pass to take a 10-0 lead. In the second quarter, the Golden Bears scored on a field goal, but Bruin flanker Jojo Townsell returned the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a 16-3 lead. UCLA used a balanced offensive attack (221 yards passing and 218 rushing) to build a 32-3 lead before California scored its lone touchdown of the game in the fourth quarter. Once again tailback Freeman McNeil was the rushing star with 115 yards while Bruin quarterbacks Ramsey (11 of 16) and Jay Schroeder (5 of 5) combined to complete 16 of 21 passes and split end Cormac Carney captured six of those aerials. Defensively, the Bruins held California to just 68 net yards rushing on 25 attempts and, despite allowing 225 passing yards, held Rich Campbell without a touchdown pass.

November 1: ARIZONA 23, UCLA 17
AT WILDCAT STADIUM, TUCSON, AZ

UCLA's dream of an undefeated season and a national championship disappeared like a mirage in the desert when Arizona upset the Bruins, 23-17, in Tucson. UCLA entered the game ranked second in the nation and when Alabama lost, the opportunity to move into the top spot appeared. However, the Bruins could not hold a 17-7 second quarter lead and less than a minute into the third period, found themselves trailing, 21-17. Thanks to an aroused Wildcat defense and the foot of punter Sergio Vega, who averaged 54.9 yards on his seven punts, the Bruins never progressed past the Arizona 34 yard line. As usual, tailback Freeman McNeil led all rushers with 158 yards but this time it was not enough. Quarterback Tom Ramsey completed 12 of 22 passes for 197 yards and the two first-half touchdowns but could not drive the Bruins to a score in the final 30 minutes.

November 8: OREGON 20, UCLA 14
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

UCLA was held to just 213 yards total offense as the Oregon Ducks defeated the Bruins in the Coliseum for the first time since 1970, 20-14. Playing most of the game without tailback Freeman McNeil, who aggravated a hip injury early in the contest, the Bruins had a hard time generating any offense. Freshman Kevin Nelson, subbing for McNeil, rushed for 92 yards and one touchdown and fullback Frank Bruno added 67 yards, but that was the extent of the UCLA offense as the Bruins averaged just 4.8 yards per pass completion. They never led in the game and were last tied, 7-7, in the second quarter following Nelson's touchdown run. Trailing 17-7 at halftime, UCLA pulled to within three points when quarterback Tom Ramsey scored on a four-yard run, but Oregon closed out the scoring with a field goal.

November 15: UCLA 23, ARIZONA STATE 14 AT SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE, AZ

The Bruins halted their losing streak in the same state in which it began, defeating Arizona State, 23-14. Tailback Kevin Nelson, subbing for the injured Freeman McNeil, and quarterback Jay Schroeder provided the heroics for the Bruins, who increased their season record to 7-2. Nelson rushed for 186 yards, the sixth-highest total in school history, and one touchdown while Schroeder passed for 157 yards and two scores. Leading 3-0 in the second quarter, Schroeder hit tight end Tim Wrightman with a 15-yard strike for a 10-0 halftime lead. Each team scored once in the third period but Nelson's 13-yard run in the fourth quarter gave UCLA a 23-7 lead. ASU scored its final touchdown with just two seconds remaining in the game. Despite the absence of McNeil, the Bruins still accounted for 259 yards rushing thanks to the efforts of Nelson and fullback Frank Bruno (64 yards).

November 22: UCLA 20, USC 17
AT LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

In his last collegiate appearance in Los Angeles, tailback Freeman McNeil made the key play that gave the Bruins a 20-17 victory over crosstown rival USC. Playing with extra protection for his injured hip, McNeil made an acrobatic catch of a tipped pass from Jay Schroeder and raced down the south sideline to complete a 58-yard play that gave the Bruins a 20-17 lead with just over two minutes remaining in the game. USC was unable to move past the Bruin 24 yard line before time ran out. The winning catch was McNeil's second touchdown of the afternoon and the first touchdown reception since his sophomore year. UCLA held a 7-3 halftime lead on his six-yard run, but USC forged into the lead early in the third period when Scott Tinsley and Jeff Simmons hooked up on a 12-yard pass play. The Bruins regained the lead less than two minutes later when quarterback Jay Schroeder, once again doing a fine job in relief, found Michael Brant all alone for a 25-yard score. Marcus Allen gave the Trojans a 17-14 lead early in the fourth quarter and that's how the score stood until McNeil made his winning catch. The Bruin tailback rushed for 111 yards and added 74 on pass receptions while Schroeder completed 9 of 11 passes for 165 yards and two TDs. The Bruin defense was superb, holding the Trojans to 255 net yards and just 109 on the ground (2.4 average). Allen, the nation's leading rusher entering the game, gained just 72 yards on 37 carries (2.0 average).

November 30: UCLA 34, OREGON STATE 3 AT NATIONAL STADIUM, TOKYO, JAPAN

Tailback Freeman McNeil and free safety Kenny Easley closed out their tremendous careers with great efforts in UCLA's Mirage Bowl victory in Tokyo, Japan. McNeil rushed for 109 yards and three touchdowns to become UCLA's all-time career rushing leader with 3,195 yards, playing only the first half. Easley, the three-time consensus All-American, made two interceptions to increase his school record to 19 and returned the first one 62 yards for the first touchdown of his career. McNeil's first two touchdowns and a Norm Johnson field goal gave the Bruins a 17-0 lead after one quarter and McNeil's third score, coupled with Easley's return, made it 31-0 at the half. Head coach Terry Donahue, who completed his fifth year as the Bruin head coach with a record of 9-2, played everyone who made the trip. Eleven different players carried the ball against Oregon State and 12 players caught passes.

UCLA IN THE NFL

Entering the 1981 National Football League season, 36 former UCLA Bruins were listed on the rosters of 17 different NFL teams. Of the 36, 24 were veterans, led by Dave Dalby and Bruce Davis of the Super Bowl Champion Oakland Raiders and Wally Henry, Jerry Robinson and John Sciarra of the Super Bowl participant Philadelphia Eagles. Freeman McNeil and Kenny Easley, the third and fourth selections in the 1981 NFL draft, head the list of 12 rookies who were either drafted or signed as free agents.

Following is the complete list of former Bruins now in the NFL along with each player's position:

UCLA'S SINGLE-SEASON 'TOP 10' IN TEN INDIVIDUAL CATEGORIES

Here are UCLA's single-season "Top 10" leaders in ten individual categories, including ball-carrying, passing, total offense, pass receiving, punting, scoring, punt returning, kickoff returning, rushing attempts and pass intercepting.

These records are from 1942 through 1980, although a few categories, as noted, go back a few more years. An 'early' (before the time span listed) accomplishment is listed at the end of the specific category. (1981 players in bold face.)

THE LAST TIME . . .

Scoring on a kickoff return, punt return, interception return or safety is rare in college football, as is a shutout. Here is a list of the last time UCLA:

Scored on kickoff return: Jojo Townsell vs California, 1980 (100 yards)

Was scored upon by kickoff return: Joe Steele of Washington, 1976 (89 yards)

Scored on punt return: Brian Smith vs Wisconsin, 1979 (six yards with blocked punt); Ray Armstrong vs Syracuse, 1966 (62 yards with kick return)

Was scored upon by punt return: Mark Lee of Washington, 1979 (62 yards)

Scored on an interception: Brian Baggot vs California, 1978 (62 yards)

Was scored upon by interception: Ron Lott of USC, 1979 (30 yards)

Scored a safety: vs Oregon, 1976

Was scored upon by safety: by Arizona, 1980

Shut out an opponent: vs Ohio State, 1980

Was shut out by opponent: by Michigan, 1971

DR. CHARLES E. YOUNG

(UC Riverside '55)
UCLA Chancellor

When Dr. Charles E. Young became chancellor of UCLA in 1968, he was 36, the youngest man to head one of the University of California's nine campuses.

Today, at 49, he has been in office longer than any other UC chancellor except one and has compiled a record of solid achievement in the post.

An energetic administrator, he has guided UCLA successfully through difficult periods of student unrest and reduced budgets, providing vigorous leadership in the effort to add to the university's academic distinction through endowed chairs and other outside financial support.

Chancellor Young attended high school and junior college in his native San Bernardino before serving in the U.S. Air Force in the Korean War. Returning from Japan as a sergeant he reentered civilian life and married his childhood sweetheart Sue Daugherty. He and Mrs. Young are the parents of two children, Charles, Jr., now 26, and Elizabeth Susan, 20. To complete his college education, Dr. Young enrolled in the newly-opened U.C. Riverside and became its first student body president in 1955.

For his graduate work, he moved to UCLA, where he earned the M.A. (1957) and the Ph.D. (1960), both in political science.

After a year in Washington D.C., on a Congressional Fellowship, he returned to California in 1959 to join the staff of UC President Clark Kerr.

For about a year he served as staff assistant to the academic team drawing up the Master Plan for Higher Education in California and worked on the University Growth Plan. He also taught political science on the Davis campus of the University in the spring of 1960.

When Dr. Franklin D. Murphy became UCLA chancellor in 1960, he chose as his assistant the young man-on-the-go. In 1963 Dr. Young was appointed a vice chancellor, with responsibilities for administrative, budgetary and student problems.

Five years later, in 1968, Dr. Murphy resigned to become chief executive officer of the Times Mirror Company, and the Regents turned to Dr. Young to lead the campus which he had served with energy and perception.

Chancellor Young's interest in top performance extends beyond purely academic concerns to other fields, including athletics, and he has been quoted as saying, "excellence in the classroom and in the laboratory are compatible with excellence on the playing field and in the gymnasium."

ROBERT A. FISCHER

(UCLA '45)
Director of Athletics

In his first year as UCLA's director of athletics, Robert A. (Bob) Fischer demonstrated that the Bruin program will continue to rank among the nation's elite.

Under his leadership, UCLA won its 39th NCAA team championship and finished among the nation's top five schools in six other sports. The volleyball team won its eighth NCAA crown while swimming and tennis finished second, gymnastics third and track, cross country and crew fifth. In addition, the Bruin football squad won 9 of 11 games and the basketball team reached the NCAA playoffs for a record 15th-straight season.

At the conclusion of the school year, UCLA's athletic program was selected the nation's finest based on a survey conducted by the Knoxville Journal. It was the third time in four years that the Bruins had been so honored.

Fischer, a native of San Francisco, was appointed to his current position in early May of 1980, effective July 1. He succeeded his longtime friend, the late J.D. Morgan, who retired from the position on October 29, 1979 due to health reasons. At the time, Fischer was named acting athletic director.

The University's choice to take over the reins of the department after a nationwide search, Fischer spent 16 years as Morgan's number one assistant. He joined the Bruin athletic department in September, 1964, as assistant director, became associate director in August, 1978, and was appointed acting director in October of 1980.

A member of the National Athletic Collegiate Directors Association, Fischer represents UCLA at all NACDA conventions, as well as at NCAA conventions and Pacific-10 conference meetings.

Among his many duties during his tenure as Morgan's top assistant were the overseeing of the operations of the UCLA Promotions and Athletic Ticket Offices, as well as being involved with football and basketball scheduling and serving as department liaison with the Sportsmen of the South, one of UCLA's fine support groups.

A graduate of UCLA, Fischer attended Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco. While serving in the U.S. Navy, Fischer came to UCLA in 1943 to participate in the V-12 program. In 1945, he earned a B.S. in Business Management, Finance, Marketing and Accounting. While at UCLA, he was very involved in student affairs. He was a member of ASUCLA Board of Control, a representative-at-large on the Student Executive Council, chairman of the Cal Club and All-U-Sing, and a member of numerous committees, including Homecoming and Stadium Executive.

Prior to graduating from UCLA, Fischer attended Naval Officer Supply School at Harvard University.

He then returned to UCLA, taking a job in the Business Office, where he served from July, 1946, through September, 1951. For the next five years, he was involved in University affairs while off campus. In September, 1956, Fischer was named executive manager of the Sportsmen of the South. He held that position until September, 1964, when he joined the athletic department as Morgan's assistant.

Fischer, a member of the original Pavilion committee which led to the construction of Pauley Pavilion, is married to the former Liliane Jenkins, also a UCLA graduate. They have four children, all college graduates: Larry, 34; Diane, 32; Michele, 29; and Denise, 26. Larry, Michele and Denise all graduated from UCLA and Diane is a graduate of Cal State University, Northridge.

DR. DOUGLAS S. HOBBS

(Harvard '55)
Faculty Athletic Representative

During his first five years as UCLA's faculty athletic representative, Prof. Douglas S. Hobbs has handled a number of major assignments with success. He just completed a term as chairman of the Pacific-10 Conference Compliance Committee and was a member of UCLA's Athletic Director Search Committee.

In 1978-79 he served on the NCAA Division I Steering Committee, which initiates policy recommendations for action by the association's annual convention, and in 1977-78 Hobbs was president of the Pacific-8 Council.

Working with faculty representatives of the other member schools, he helps to shape matters of athletic policy and to approve legislative action of the Pacific Ten Conference as well as to help determine the eligibility of student athletes.

His duties also include membership on the UCLA Athletic and Recreational Policies Commission, and he also serves as the faculty athletic representative for UCLA's outstanding women's intercollegiate program.

An associate professor of political science with a specialty in American Constitutional law, Dr. Hobbs enjoys his work in athletics and is a longtime spectator at UCLA athletic events. He says, "Since joining the UCLA faculty in 1964, I've missed only one home football game." On that occasion, Gary Beban broke his leg during the struggle with Stanford, and Dr. Hobbs is resolved not to court such disasters by his absence. He also rarely misses a basketball game in Pauley Pavilion.

He competed in track and basketball at Great Neck, N.Y., High School and also, as he puts it, "Played without distinction on Harvard's freshman basketball team."

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Dr. Hobbs was educated at Harvard University, receiving his A.B., magna cum laude, in 1955 and his Ph.D. in 1966. He was a Robert Treat Paine Fellow there in 1958-59, a Graduate Fellow in 1959-60 and a Teaching Fellow in Government in 1959-62 and 1963-64. He has taught at UCLA since 1964.

He has won three teaching honors at UCLA, the 1968 and 1975 Pi Sigma Alpha Awards for Distinguished Teaching in Political Science, and the UCLA Alumni Association's Distinguished Teaching Award in 1969.

Professor Hobbs served on active duty as an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1955-58 and in 1962-63. He served as a Navigator on board a destroyer and later as Communications Officer and staff secretary on the staff of Destroyer Squadron Eight. He left the Naval Reserve as a Lieutenant Commander in 1965.

Dr. Hobbs is married to the former Jane Field, and they live in Brentwood, a residential area a few miles from the Westwood campus.

HISTORY OF UCLA

UCLA occupies an unusual position among the nation's large universities; it is one of a tiny handful known both for top academic leadership and championship athletics.

Two historic decisions played a critical part in UCLA's growth to its present distinction. The first was the vote of the state legislature in 1919 to allow the Los Angeles State Normal School to become part of the University of California; the second was the decision to move UCLA's campus in 1929 from a small plot on Vermont Avenue to the new home in Westwood Village.

Affiliation with the University of California gave the fledgling university the academic prestige it needed to attract outstanding faculty and students; the move to Westwood gave it a handsome setting and room for expansion into a major institution. The fact that the campus lay in the path of growth of the nation's most vigorous metropolis undoubtedly made an important contribution.

From a provincial undergraduate institution in the 20s, UCLA has developed into a major research university with the eighth largest graduate enrollment among U.S. state universities.

UCLA's various professional schools, though relatively young, have also reached national prominence. One 1977 survey found the UCLA Law School in 10th position,

Graduate Education in 4th, and Management in 8th; another, in 1979, listed UCLA Medicine in 5th place in the U.S.

UCLA's faculty rolls, which have listed Nobelists and numerous members of the National Academy of Sciences, contain many nationally-known authorities. UCLA faculty are always represented, often in considerable numbers, among the winners of Guggenheim awards or Fulbright or Sloan fellowships.

In support of faculty and student research, UCLA has developed many unusual educational facilities, including a library of well over 4,000,000 volumes recently ranked 9th in the nation by the Association of Research Libraries. Another important research tool is the new IBM 3033 computer, one of the most advanced in U.S. universities, which processes 700,000 jobs each year.

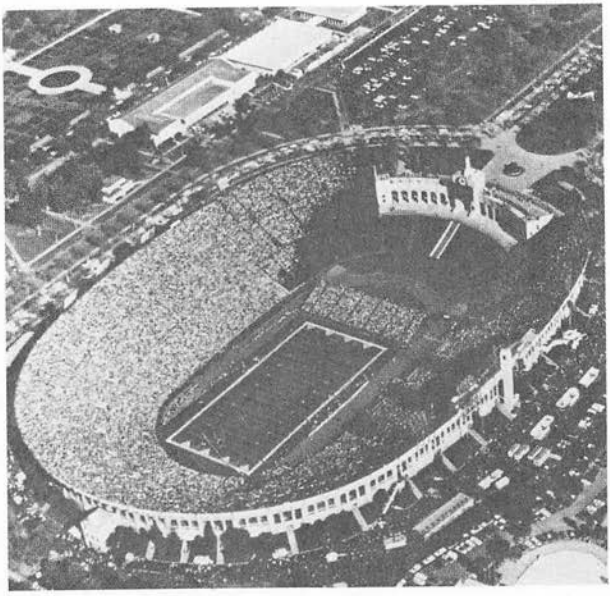
In science, the university has such special facilities as a linear accelerator, a laboratory for research into nuclear fusion which may some day provide unlimited sources of energy, a carbon-dating laboratory which determines the age of ancient objects, and a tissue-typing laboratory which matches donors and recipients of organ transplants all over the world.

No less impressive are the facilities in the arts, which include the extensive ethnic art collection of the Museum of Cultural History and the more than 400 exotic musical instruments of the department of music. Still other unusual collections embrace the more than 60 major examples of contemporary sculpture in the Franklin Murphy Sculpture Garden and the more than 25,000 prints in the Grunwald Center for the Graphic Arts.

It is perhaps not surprising that UCLA's strong faculty and excellent facilities have attracted a large volume of research grants, not only from private sources but from the government. In federal grants for research and development, UCLA ranked 6th in the nation in 1978.

It is also not surprising that with such a wealth of educational opportunity, UCLA's students should have played a prominent role in supplying California's need for sophisticated manpower, thus providing an increasingly influential group of UCLA alumni in the state and nation.

THE BEAUTIFUL HOME OF UCLA'S FOOTBALL BRUINS



Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum

- One of the World's Premier Stadiums . . .
- Site of the 1932 Olympic Games . . .
- Capacity = 92,604
- Site of the 1984 Olympic Games

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum may be 58 years old, but it is continuously being improved. In fact, in the past 34 years, some $12 million improvements have been made to maintain the Coliseum's position among the super stadia of the world.

The 92,604 seating capacity includes 74,017 theater-type seats and only 18,587 remaining bench-type seats.

The Coliseum, built in 1923 and enlarged for the Olympic Games in 1932, is best known as the world's greatest football stadium, the home of not one, but two top teams, UCLA and USC.

There are 90 entrances equipped with 74 turnstiles for easy access and exit of the facility. A modern press box sits high atop the south rim of the Coliseum. It has three levels serviced by a private elevator. The seating capacity is 216 on the first and second levels only.

A Coliseum Commission, with Michael J. Frankovich, a former UCLA football great, currently serving as president, oversees the facility for the State of California, County of Los Angeles and City of Los Angeles. Jim Hardy is the general manager, assisted by Jerry Nielsen.
